March 14, 2022 – Day 1: Dinner Included

You'll arrive to Budapest with the staff welcoming you and transferring you to the city center. We'll start orientation from the Citadella at the top of the Gellért Hill - Its breathtaking panoramic view of Budapest and the Danube River is an amazing sight to see. Next, a walking tour in the Castle District with a little surprise for you. During the walk in the medieval streets beautiful historic monuments and buildings come into view. Buda Castle district itself is also a beautiful place with Mathias Church, Hungarian National Gallery, old, fairy-tale houses which give the atmosphere and memories of a medieval capital. There is even a labyrinth in Buda Castle area. The Buda Castle is the part of the Budapest World Heritage Site since 1987. During the walk, we'll visit some restaurants, possible gala dinner venues (Royal Guard & Riding School) and program options. We'll visit the Europe Boat – The biggest event boat in the city, a perfect venue for different type of dinner / gala events. Then, we'll head to the hotel and enjoy dinner.

March 15, 2022 – Day 2: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner Included

We'll wake up early for breakfast and conduct a site inspection in the Hotel. Afterwards, we'll meet in the lobby and transfer to the Heroes' Square. We'll visit the Vajdahunyad Castle and Museum of Fine Arts and Restaurant Gundel as gala dinner venues and stop by at the world famous Széchenyi Bath. We'll take an underground ride to the city centre – and visit and gastro experience at the Gerbeaud Café. Next, we'll visit the Hungarian Parliament - a fabulous visit in the world 3rd largest and most beautiful Parliament building. Afterwards, you'll DIY - make and eat your own Chimney Cake! Next, we'll visit the Hidden Treasure Wine Cellar for a surprise tasting. We'll transfer back to the hotel – and have some time to relax. We'll meet in the lobby and transfer to our dinner destination. We'll ride in the private cabin and enjoy the breath-taking view
