

“BUCHAREST & TRANSYLVANIA DRACULA TOUR” ASTA MARCH 2023

Activity level: moderate - medium physical demands required (please consider that visiting the Palace of Parliament and Bran Dracula's Castle involves climbing quite a number of stairs)

DAY 1 March 28, 2022

We will pick you up from your ship in Giurgiu after breakfast at 9 AM. We will do a walking tour of Carol Park, see the Red Granite Mausoleum and “Romanian Unknown soldiers memorial”. At 11 AM we will do a private tour of the Romanian Senate wing of the “Palace of Parliament”, 2nd biggest building in the world after the Pentagon. It took 10 years to build and it holds several world records. We continue with lunch at “Crama Domneasca” where you will have the chance to taste the Romanian dish “Mititei” grilled meat balls and drink beer “by the meter”. The program continues with a panoramic tour of Bucharest and a walk through the “Village Museum”, an outdoor unique ethnographic museum that holds wooden houses several hundred years old. Check into “Intercontinental Bucharest Athene Palace Hotel”, 5*, 2 nights. At 7 PM we depart for dinner with 3 meal course and drinks + Romanian music at “Jaristea” Restaurant.

DAY 2 March 29, 2022

We depart at 8,30 AM towards the Carpathian Mountains. Driving time to Bran's Castle is about 3 hours with a stop for refreshments in between. We will do a guided tour of the Castle, then you have free time in the market below. Bran is the perfect place to buy your souvenirs from Romania. Returning to Bucharest we stop in Azuga and tour Rhein Wine Cellars, we do a Champagne tasting and have a deluxe farewell gourmet meal (3 meal course with drinks). Evening arrival in Bucharest.
