March 13, 2022 – Day 1: Dinner Included

After you arrive at your preferred hotel, we'll meet you in the evening to depart to the Danube pier to spend a pleasant evening on a boat. A boat cruise on the river is always a great opportunity to see Budapest from a different perspective. Highlights of the trip: Margaret Bridge, Margaret-Island, House of Parliament, Chain Bridge, Matthias Church, Fishermen's Bastion, the former Royal Palace, Elisabeth Bridge, Gellért Hill on top with the Citadel and the Liberation Monument. Evening cruises give a more impressive experience to see the illuminated buildings on the banks while you enjoy delicious food and excellent drinks during dinner.

March 14, 2022 – Day 2: Breakfast and Dinner Included

During this tour, you can hear about the Jewish culture's important role in contemporary Hungarian society. Learn all about Hungary's Jewish history, heritage, and culture as the largest Jewish community in Central Europe. Enjoy a pleasant walk in Budapest, discover the hidden treasures, old kosher butchers, and visit the world's second-largest Synagogue! See the Kazinczy Street Synagogue, Raul Wallenberg Holocaust Memorial Park, Rumbach Sebestyén Street with its Synagogue, Gozdsu Courtyard and Király Street. As the tour's highlight, you will have an exclusive inside visit of the Dohány Street Synagogue, which is Europe's largest one! After the tour, enjoy some free time for a light lunch in Budapest, with suggestions given by your guide.

After lunch, we'll transfer to Szentendre, located along the Danube River, as it attracts residents and visitors of all ages. We'll enjoy a walk among the cozy buildings, then visit a brand-new Art Gallery with Zsolnay Ceramic Tea Party. The gallery is a unique hidden place in the romantic village. You can see a vast collection of Hungarian masterpieces and receive information on their creators and the creatures themselves. We'll provide a live introduction of the most outstanding artworks and artists in the gallery during our exclusive visit. Following the introduction, you can explore the details and stories of the artworks on your own mobile devices with a specially developed on-site application. We'll introduce one or more short movies (of 5-10 minutes each) about some masterpieces in the gallery during the visit. Using live stream connection and Zoom application, we can introduce one of the artists currently exhibiting in the gallery. You can talk to the master during the live meeting and ask questions. The master provides a short introduction of himself, their studio of work and tells some secrets about "how they create the masterpieces." Using the advantages of the ultimate technologies, the visitors can get to know the artists in their authentic living and working place. A selection of fine sandwiches, cakes, scones, and the famous Hungarian "pogacska" is offered during the Gallery visit. Unlimited tea consumption using our Royal ZSOLNAY® tea sets, with various assortment of tea selection will be available.

Then, we'll transfer to the most beautiful café in the world, located on the corner of the New York Palace. Entering the New York Café means immersing in a wonderful Belle Époque dream with Historical decoration and frescoes in the whole café. We'll enjoy dinner in the White Salon, where beautiful glass chandeliers from Murano crown the room's beauty. A 3-course dinner with unlimited consumption includes soft drinks, wine, beer, coffee, and tea.

March 15, 2022 – Day 3: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner Included

After breakfast, we'll transfer to the Western Railway station. We'll take our seats in the stylish dining car of the train. The destination is Szeged, in the southeastern part of Hungary and its most atmospheric city. Drinks and snacks are included during the trip. We'll take a tram and go to the city center upon arrival. We visit the Cathedral, the fourth biggest church in the country, with roman, gothic, and eastern Byzantine style elements and a gorgeous, huge space. After a short walk on the river's promenade, we'll enter the "Halászkert" Restaurant for a delicious lunch. In the afternoon part of the tour, we'll visit the second-largest Synagoge in Hungary and the splendid row of palaces, including the art nouveau Beregi house. On our train trip back to Budapest, we'll enjoy a special dinner.

March 16, 2022 – Day 4: Breakfast Included

After breakfast, you'll depart back to Downtown Budapest to join the ASTA Global River Cruise Expo around noon.
