Tour description

Eger is one of the most fascinating sites of Hungary! See the country's second largest church, wander down beautiful Baroque streets and see the northernmost Turkish medieval minaret in Europe! Sample fine Hungarian wines and enjoy a delicious lunch! Travel in comfort and relax with Budapest hotel door-to-door service!

Enrich your stay in Hungary with a memorable excursion to the world of Hungarian wine. The destination is Eger, a 90-minute drive from Budapest, from where you will depart for your full day's adventure.

The second largest city in the north of Hungary, Eger has had an interesting history and you will get to stroll along the impressive Baroque streets visiting sights such as its Basilica and 17th-Century Minaret, the northernmost Turkish minaret in Europe.

Wander down Széchenyi Street and Dobó István Square to take in the Minorite Church and splendid Baroque and Rococo houses. You will visit the ruins of the city's castle, where you will be rewarded with glorious panoramic views.

The Eger region is known for its production of high quality reds and whites and you will get to taste 12-13 different wines, accompanied by delicious Hungarian cold snack and some classic bean goulash.

Full of fine wine and food, you will be transferred back to Budapest for a drop-off at your city center hotel or location of choice.
