March 13, 2022 – Day 1: Lunch and Dinner Included

Get together in the late morning to start a great journey to the former land of Hungary's influential noble family, the Esterhazys. Through the history of the palace of the well-connected family, explore Hungarian history. Among its walls, events of national importance took place and rulers, such as Franz Joseph I, visited its premises. Armies marched outside, while commanders-in-chief held war councils within its walls. Also belonged to the family, a former hunting lodge was turned into a monastery. Camaldolese, also known as the silent monks, lived their whole life without talking. They were members of a hard-working order, producing herbal medicines. Experience the silence and what it can teach you. After closing the cultural and history chapter for the day, you will visit a small wine producer to taste the local wine and some homemade delicacies. After finishing the program, you will have a short bus ride to reach your destination and the hotel for the next 3 nights.

March 14, 2022 – Day 2: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner Included

You'll visit the European Cultural City 2023 – Veszprém – and its gorgeous region at Lake Balaton, the largest freshwater lake in Central Europe. Once upon a time, the Medieval Veszprém was also referred to as the Town of the Hungarian Queens. Today the town center is the former Castle and its surroundings. Many attractions are still under construction to be ready by 2023. After discovering the small romantic alleyways of the Castle area, you will be invited to participate in a presentation and learn about the future attractions. After the presentation, lunch will be served from Lake Balaton's most amazing panorama point. Later, enjoy sailing on the lake with a nostalgic ship and learn the local traditions from around the turn of the 19-20th century.

March 15, 2022 – Day 3: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner Included

Győr is a multicultural city at the confluence of three rivers: the Danube River being one of them. You will meet a local to treasure-hunt the city's most exciting sights and learn about history's turns and twists. The Baroque town square is the center of everyday life and the city, being an educational and technical center of the region, attracts many people. As the tour's highlight after lunch at a typical regional restaurant, you can experience a 1000-year-old, still working monastery. The complex is part of the UNESCO World Heritage. It includes a cathedral, a catholic boys' school, and a Benedictine cloister. Their properties produce high-quality wine, lavender products, and boosts with a chocolate manufactory.

March 16, 2022 – Day 4: Breakfast Included

After breakfast, you'll depart back to Budapest to join the ASTA Global River Cruise Expo around noon.
